To qualify, applicants must:

- be an outstanding Episcopal student at an institution belonging to the National Association of Episcopal Schools
- demonstrate experience in Service Learning and community engagement
- be planning to attend one of these seven Episcopal colleges and universities
- have a record of outstanding leadership, a commitment to worship and community life in their school and home parish

Background: Established in 1997 by the William Randolph Hearst Foundation, these awards emphasize learning through service and seek to recognize students who have been active Episcopalians in their high school and/or home parish.
